

	ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY July 2017
Stone Management Group Ltd ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY Stone Management Group recognises that its activities may affect the environment and is committed to minimising adverse impacts and improving process efficiency. This environmental policy is reviewed annually for its application to activities at our office locations and demonstrates a corporate commitment to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Comply with all relevant environmental legislation, regulations and standards to which the company subscribe</li><li>• Review annually the environmental impact of our activities including any that could affect local communities</li><li>• Strive for continual improvement in environmental performance</li><li>• Develop Stone Management Group Best Practice Guides to help, minimise waste and maximise efficient use of equipment, materials, fuel, water and energy</li><li>• Identify the main environmental impacts</li><li>• Have arrangements in place to enable the Company to respond to all incidents and prevent foreseeable incidents and emergencies</li><li>• Involve employees and suppliers in our environmental plans and provide training and advice to enable discharge of environmental protection responsibilities</li><li>• Encourage employees to exercise their individual responsibilities to meet the requirements of this policy and invite contributions on good practice through line management or to me directly.</li></ul> Stone Management Group	